The Legend of the DOGWOOD

There is a legend, that at the time of the Crucifixion the dogwood had been the size of the oak and other forest trees. So firm and strong was the tree that it was chosen as the timber for the cross. To be used for such a cruel purpose greatly distressed the tree, and in His hentle pity for all sorrow and suffering said to it:

"Because of your regret and pity for My suffering, never again shall the dogwood tree grow large enough to be used as a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender and bent and twisted and its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross....two long and two short petals And in the center of the outer edge of each petal there will be nail prints, brown with rust and stained with red, and in the center of the flower will be a crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember....that it was upon a dogwood tree I was crucified and this tree shall not be mutilated or destroyed, but cherished as a reminder of My death upon the cross.

PLANTING INSTRUCTIONS

Never plant a dogwood deeper than it stood in the nursery row.

Dig hole large enough to accommodate roots without crowding and deep enough to set tree same depth it grew in nursery row. Bruised or broken roots, or stems, should be cut of clean Fill hole half full of good rich soil, using no fertilizer. Spread the roots and cover with loose top soil, working soil well underneath to prevent leaving air spaces. Finish filling hole and tamp soil firmly. Water thoroughly once a week. Tree Farming Will Pay on Your Farm

WOOD FOR THE FUTURE

Wood has been the basic home building material for centuries. Its beauty makes it the choice of million's for today's modern designs. Progress already made on privately owned tree farms proves that forests can be used and perpetuated. Modern tree farming practices encourage natural reproduction and maximum use of forest soil. Tree farms are planned to grow the maximum amount of wood per acre.

MR. FARMER what acres have you on your farm for tree farming? Ask your local county agent for his advice. The best and inexpensive way to begin tree farming is from seed. The trees will be in your seed beds when moisture conditions are right for planting. Tree farming does not call for for expensive labor or costly machinery. Think it over.

MR. FARMER are you tax conscious? Most people are. Reforested land is practically tax free in most States. Reforested land increases in value from $20.00 to $30.00 per acre each year. Land planted to trees is the finest insurance policy for your estate.

Some farms have wind-blown practically abandoned fields. Trees will do well where farming fails. Why not turn such fields into thick valuable forest. THINK IT OVER.

We attempt to maintain stocks on items herein listed for prompt shipment of orders. Since there is a great variance in the maturing date of seeds and length of time required for processing and time required for importing certain varieties we cannot always ship all items at the same time.

Orders will be filled as promptly as the arrival of new crop seed permits. If customers do not wish orders held for new crop seed, please advise us of your wishes.

PLANT TREES AND SAVE YOUR LANDS

One single acre of natural woodland is like a giant sponge. This one acre will replenish the underground water table more than 500 acres of bare or eroded land. Underground water tables are being pumped to the danger point in many areas from the Pacific to the Atlantic Coasts. As the remaining forests are cut down, and no new ones started, higher than normal summer heat is the rule and less normal natural rainfall can be expected. When the rains come in floods, most of the water runs off causing great damage, never reaching the underground water table. As the water table drops wells and springs dry up. Untold thousands of our farms, and ranches that control watersheds should be setting land aside for growing trees instead of growing surplus crops for which there is no market at home or overseas. Tree farming is one of the bright spots in American Agriculture.

Under good growing conditions, six to seven years after sowing the seed, species like Spruce, Larch, Locust, and many other kinds will be from 5-10 ft. high and higher, ready to really start growing. Mixed planting of both evergreen and deciduous species should be practiced.
